

Membership Matters!

Join and connect your business to the community and the markets that you serve!

Build Relationships through Networking

- Build local business-to-business partnerships through MKCC networking events, virtual forums, new business introductions and ribbon cuttings.
- Receive "The Edge", our bi-monthly e-Chamber News to keep you informed on the latest "need-to-know" opportunities, member activities and community issues.

Stay Informed

- Have access to the Chamber's "Members Only" Facebook conversation.
- Stay in touch with business in the region through multi-Chamber networking, tools and resources.

Grow with Chamber Marketing Support & Opportunities

- Increase exposure for your business through the Chamber's interactive website with a customized business listing and hyperlink that brings customers directly to you.
- Have the ability to post your business promotions, events and job openings to the Chamber's Website
- Increase the reach of your social media posts through Chamber "shares" and collaboration on FB/IG
- Save with Member pricing for the Village Street Banner Program and display your business name 24/7!
- Have the opportunity to gain greater visibility through participation in Chamber events and marketing opportunities for more effective branding.

Advocacy - Be Heard!

We are united as a business organization with a strong voice on business related issues in the community. The Chamber maintains relationships with local and regional government to help you stay informed.

Credibility

Chamber Membership gives customers more confidence in your business. Be viewed more favorably when being identified as a MKCC member and displaying the annual membership ID at your location.

Get Involved

Becoming a Chamber Member is a clear path to being better connected to the community in which you do business. Help put good ideas to work and get involved on a MKCC Committee. People do business with people they know...make new friends and build business relationships.
